Na, Hirini Taiwhanga i Whakaatu, tetahi Marama tana na Parete (Mr Brett) o Akarana o te Tau 1885. kei te 80 o nga Wharangi o taua pukapuka.

He patai na te Waari Kaiwhakawa Tuturu o Whanganui. Ko tana patai tenei.

"E pehea ana ra tenei Iwi te Maori, e hohoro ana rnei te matemate atu? Kupu Whakahoki, AE, erangi kaore e hohoro. Ko te Whakapakehatanga tenei-

"Coming now to the important question, are the Maoris as a nation dying out? In my opinion, Yes, but not so fast."-Mr Ward, R.M. of Whanganui

Ka tu a Hirini Taiwhanga Ki runga ka ki ka mea. Whakarongo mai ete Iwi He whakatauki tenei na te Pakeha e mea ana. Kia Tika, a kaua e wehi Tukua nga Pito katoa taau e titiro atu nei ko Tou Whenua Tou Atua me te Pono Ko te Whakapakehatanga tenei-

"Be just and fear not, let all the ends thou aimst at be the Country, thy God, and Truth"

He Whakatauki ano. E kaha rawa ana a Pono a e riro mai ia Tika tana e Whai atu nei Reo Pakeha.

"Truth is mighty; right will prevail"

Ka panuitia atu nei e ahau kia koutou i te korero o to Nuipepa Taima o Otago ko aua korero i pute i te Nuipepa o te Nui Tireni Taima o Akaraua i te 6 o Pepurre 1884. E mea ana, me hoatu he mana whakahaere kia te Paraihe, kia whai kaha ai ia ki te Taronarona i nga Pakeha e aroha pono mai ana ki te Maori me nga Maori Tautohe

Reo Pakeha—"Mr. Bryce to conduct matters to a successful issue, if he had only power to hang a few Pakeha Maoris and dispose in an equally effective manner of other classes of native agitators, it would be a very good thing for the Colony"

Ka panuitia atu nei ano hoki e ahau tetahi korero, Ara, ko te Nuitireni Herara, o Akarana i te 19 o Huue, 1885 E mea ana. I ki a Ta Hori Kerei ekore e tika kia tukua he mana Whakahaere ki nga Maori mo a ratou whenua ake. Kei Kawanatia te Maori mo to Pakeha.

Reo Pakeha—"If we make great concessions to the natives, and at the same time hand over to them the control of their lands, the natives would simply be our rulers in a few year."

Ko to Niu Tireni Taima o Poneke i te 24 o Hune 1886. I roto i te Paremete o taua tau, I mea a Ta Hori Kerei Kia tuku motini ia Kia Whakakorea atu te Ture nui o Nui Tireni, 1852 (The New Zealand Constitution Act, 1852, 15 & 16, Victoria, Cap. 72, Sec. 71. A notemea Ko taua rarangi 71, o taua Ture nei, He tiuo Kupu whakaae na te Kuini i tetahi Kawanatanga, mo te Maori ake, Ki taku Whakaaro, mehemea Ki te Whakaaetia te Hiahia o Ta Hori Kerei, Kia whaka Korea atu taua Ture nui o Nuitireni 1852. Ka Kore Katoa atu auo hoki taua Rarangi, 71 nei, Hoi ano Ko to te Maori Matenga atu ano ia.

Reo Pakeha (New Zealand Times, Wellington, 24 June, 1886)—"Sir G. Grey has given notice that he will move as an amendment on the next motion for going into Committee of Supply the following resolution:—

That an humble petition be presented to Her Majesty representing:

- That in federated nations the privilege is left to each State comprised in the Federation of framing and adopting its own constitution as approved by the electors of such State.
- That the people of New Zealand have no complete liberty or power to adopt such a constitution as they would desire, in as much as the Governor is nominated by Her Majesty's advisers in England.
- That Her Majesty's loyal subjects, the Members of the House of Representatives of New Zealand, therefore, earnestly request Her Majesty to authorise her Advisers to introduce into the Imperial Parliament a measure repealing the New Zealand Constitution Act, 1852, from and after a date to be fixed by the Imperial Parliament."

Na, E hoa ma E aku Whanaunga, I runga i enoi tu korero, me enei tu Tikanga, me enei whakahaere i nga Ture Taimaha ki runga i nga Iwi Maori (Tena atu ano te muinga o aua Ture Taimaha). Koia ahau i mea ai i nga tau maha kua pahure ake nei kia Pootitia ahau kia Tu hei mema mo te Paremete Tirohia i ana to kupu Tapu e ki nei Rapua a ki kitea e koutou, Patukia a ka uakina kia koutou. He Waiata.

Whakarongo, Whakarongo ra te Taringa ki to Hau Taua e Hau mai nei i te Tai ki te Uru Hurihia, Hurihia ki muri ki to Tuara, Tikina taku Ika ki waho ki te Moaua nui Kiwa e takoto mai nei he Koronga he koronga na haka kia tee au ki nga Uru kahika ki Ouhu kio Oama. Kia kata noe mai te Kikitara kotikotipae:—Hoi ano, kia ora koutou katoa.
